

I write today to share my opposition to any measure which would weaken Wisconsin's "Do Not Call" law. The barrage of telephone calls which would undoubtedly follow would constitute harassment, as well as a risk for vulnerable consumers such as the elderly. Please do not allow lobbyists from the banking industry to destroy the peace and quiet that I have finally been able to enjoy at home.